

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is not fair.

In the United States we pride ourselves on being fair. Fair means looking at both sides and giving all sides a chance to explain their views. By forcing TV stations to air this documentary that is so one sided is not fair. If the stations would like to show this program than it should also show the other side of the issue, like the documentary "Up River" . Or, they could show 9/11 which is a one sided film in regards to the Bush administration.

It is the duty of our media, which gets free use of our airwaves, to represent both sides of the issue. It is your responsibility at the FCC to make sure they are doing so.

Thank you for your time and ability to make our airwaves just, Mary Lehmer
